STOLEN MONEY.

DETAILING HIS OWN PECULIAR TRANSACTIONS IN THE TRIAL OF THE LOTTERY DEALER ADMITTING THAT HE HAD STOLEN FROM A CLEB-

GYMAN. James E. Bedell, the law clerk, continued yester-day with remarkable coolness to tell the story of his policy playing, in which he lost half of the #250,000 which he secured by forging mortgages. The testi-mony was given on the trial before Recorder Smyth of Herman J. Emerson, who, it is charged, kept a gambling place at No. 180 Broadway, where Bodell lost his money. Ex-Judge Shipman, of Shipman, Rarlow, Larocque & Choate, Bedell's former employers, and ex-Surrogate Rollins sat near Assistant District-Attorney Jerome, and Mr. Rollins sometimes made Bedell write out numbers and give the slip to Emerson, and he had seen payments of money from Bedell to Emerson and from Emerson to Bedell. The hond gives by Emerson at the District Bedell. The bond given by Emerson at the District-Attorney's office was introduced in evidence to show the signature of Emerson, and D. M. Carvalho was called as an exeprt, to show that the initials on certain District Messenger slips were in the handwriting of Emerson. The writing on some policy slips was also, Mr. Carvalho said, in the same hand.

THE COURT OF APPEAUS.

Albany, Oct. 24.—In the Court of Appeals to-day the following causes were argued:

No. 63. Frederick W. Miller and others, executors, respondents, agt. Samuel Zeimer and others, appellants; for respondents.

No. 63. The Mayor, etc., of New-York City, appellants, the Tenth National Bank respondents.

The witness-With interest added I believe the amount would be $255,000.

Bedell said that he spent $70,000 in improvements and additions on his farm, lost $127,000 at policy-playing, and used the rest to pay the interest on the forged morigages. Mr. Howe attempted to make a dramatic scene by calling to the bar a flashily dressed woman and asking Bedell whether he recognized her. He hesitated, but linally said that he believed he had seen the woman in a house in Thirty-first-st, but that he did not remember the circumstances well. He subsequently explained that he drank heavily as the beginning of each of his "spress." When asked questions about his visits to disreputable houses, he always replied that his recollection was indistinct on that subject. Asking about Bedell's refusal to testify in the Seprems Court, Mr. Howe said:

The Recorder-You must answer.

The witness then told about the circumstances which led to his arrest on September 17, which did not differ from the story published at the time. He added that he had only made two purchases of stocks, once he bought some Erie stock and gained about $500, and at another time he bought some St. Paul and Duluth stock and lost about $500. He denied playing any gambling games except policy.

Mr. Jerome asked the witness a few questions and he was allowed to leave the witness stand. Some formal testimony closed the day's proceedings. The COMMON PLEAS—THAL TERM—PART II.—Before Daily and Allen, JJ.—Adjourned until volother 29.
